

SOME IMPRESSIONS OF THE CAT FANCY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Especially written for the CAT BREEDER
(London 1969)

Jack Stephens
(Contributed by Marge Naples)

This summer I spent a vacation in Southern California with my daughter and family. This was no millionaire's holiday, for if you are lucky enough to have a relative in America you can join the American British Canadian Club and fly by charter Super D.C.8 jet to Los Angeles and back for £100, food, liquor and a champagne breakfast included.